Some Reports That Will Go.

Mrs. E. Y. Chapin, secretary of the National League of Woman's Service. recently prepared a splendid report of the work done by the league, so far as reported at that time, covering knit-ting, sewing, all kinds of hospital work, visiting different wards as adopted by affiliated organizations, social affairs, including dances at the country club, and many weekly programs at the fort. One branch of the work which has been given especial attention is the attending of funerals, corresponding with the relatives of deceased soldiers or entertaining them at private homes when coming from a distance. A service ic gue 'a and a small United States flag has been placed on h body, simply as a mark of re-

The Chattanooga women fully realize what war means and are exerting their best efforts, and have been since the organization of the National League for Woman's Service, to do their part.

For days and weeks the preparations for this great meeting in Nashville have been going on under the direction of Mrs. Idabelle Wilson, state chairman of patriotic meetings and educational propaganda.

The Chattanooga Woman's club and Kosmos will send report of work done among the wards of the base hospital in connection with that of many other lines of soldiers' welfare. Mrs. L. G. Browne, president of Kosmos; Mrs. E. A. Wheatley, Mrs. D. F. Beckham, Mrs. W. L. Scott and others, of Kosmos, have aided materially in the compilation of the lists by their arduous activities week after week at the army post. Knitting, mending, Red Cross work in many channels will contribute also the good showing.

Mrs. F. L. Underwood, president of the Chattanooga Woman's club, has been assisted by Mrs. Mary Glies How-ard, Mrs. Earl Cooke, Mrs. C. K. Da-vis, Mrs. Harry Stoops, Mrs. D. A.
